INTERNATIONAL POLICE EXECUTIVE SYMPOSIUM

BRINGING POLICE RESEARCHERS AND PRACTITIONERS TOGETHER FOR THE ENRICHMENT OF THE POLICE PROFESSION

The International Police Executive Symposium (IPES) brings police researchers and practitioners together to facilitate cross-cultural, international and interdisciplinary exchanges for the enrichment of the policing profession. It encourages discussions and writing on challenging topics of contemporary importance through an array of initiatives including conferences and publications.

IPES INVITES YOU TO HOST ONE OF THE PRESTIGIOUS IPES MEETINGS IN YOUR COUNTRY, ATTRACTING REPRESENTATIVES FROM MORE THAN 50 COUNTRIES. PLEASE READ OVER THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION AND THEN VISIT WWW.IPES.INFO FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT A FUTURE MEETING IN YOUR COUNTRY!

- (1) For an IPES meeting, the host selects the topic, the time and the number of countries/participants: IPES contacts all countries in the world, international institutions, IPES Alumni and all other possible sources to identify and send their experts on the topic to the meeting. However, IPES sticks to the quota given by the host as to how many participants are to be allowed. All participants are encouraged to present papers.
- (2) The meeting is for 5 full days as follows: First day: registration, and reception; Second and Third days: Full days of presentations and discussion; Fourth day: Sightseeing and Cultural Entertainment; Fifth and Sixth days: Presentations, discussion, summing up, award ceremony and Farewell Lunch.
- (3) IPES meetings attract about 50 countries from all parts of the world. The hosts provide participants full hospitality. Further, IPES is provided with $15,000 by the host for running the secretariat for a year of preparation for the meeting and for all other expenses including printing and mailing of flyers, advertising the meeting world-wide, publishing a conference participants' directory with their bios and country profiles, and other publications. Again, IPES would like to discuss all this with the host before signing the formal contract for hosting.
- (4) The hosts can consist of several co-hosts. There are variations in hosting IPES annual meetings.
